

President's Notes:

When we called Rev. Rita to be our minister, the Board commissioned Becky Rossow to create a stole to commemorate our new partnership. At the In-Gathering service last Sunday, we gave Rita her new stole. Becky discovered that Rita particularly appreciates the art of Georgia O'Keefe, so she designed the stole to echo a pastel painting of O'Keefe's, "Sun Water Maine." Since water and light are the themes of the stole, it was particularly appropriate that we gave it to her when we celebrated a water communion together. If you have not had a chance to see it up close, ask Rev. Rita to model it for you—and thank Becky Rossow for sharing her art with all of us.
